

Columbia Law School

Scholarship Archive

Kernochan Center for Law, Media, and the Arts

Research Centers & Programs

2021

Kernochan Center News - Winter 2021

Kernochan Center for Law, Media and the Arts

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarship.law.columbia.edu/law_media_arts

Part of the Law Commons

Winter 2021

FALL'S FIRST SPEAKER EVENT

On October 8th, the Kernochan Center hosted a pre-election discussion on the ins and outs of using music in political campaign events. Monica McCabe, a partner at Phillips Nizer LLP, and Matthew Sanderson, a partner at Caplin and Drysdale LLP, led the discussion in a webinar.

Read More

UPCOMING EVENTS

October 21, 2020 @ 7:30 PM

ALUMNI IN ENTERTAINMENT, THE ARTS and IP.

CLS alums advise current students about making the transition from law school to a career in law. Panelists include Alice Kim (CLS '95), who is the Senior Vice President, Knowledge Management, for the ViacomCBS Law Department, Amy Lehrburger (CLS '17), who is an associate in Arnold & Porter's Technology Transactions group in San Francisco, Lakshmi Mohandas (CLS '12), who is Associate General Counsel at the National Gallery of Art, and Collin J. Peng-Sue (CLS '08), an attorney on Netflix's Content Legal IP team.

October 22, 2020 @ 4:00 PM

KERNOCHAN CENTER BOARD OF ADVISORS MEETING

The Board of Advisors for the Kernochan Center will meet virtually this fall.

GOING ONLINE

In the initial aftermath of the spread of COVID-19, the Kernochan Center was obliged to cancel planned events and visits by guest speakers. As Columbia Law School navigates the world of socially-distanced learning, the Center is taking steps to move our programming online in order to make sure that the student body still has access to the resources the Kernochan Center provides. Our lunch lectures are now webinars, and professors meet with students by webcam.

Are you an alum? Tell us your news!